OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

The State Fair.

Most of our readers are probably aware that Wisconsin is to have a State Fair this fall and that Janesville is the point fixed upon by the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society at which to hold it. Such is the fact, and workmen are already busy in preparing the necessary buildings for the great show that is to be. Prof. Hoyt, of Madison, Secretary of the Society, informs us that the prospects now are very good for a large attendance of the farmers, mechanics and fruit growers of the State, not to mention a liberal number of gentlemen from our neighboring states, who are interested in that great and dignified calling which lies at the foundation of all other pursuits

The great cloud of the draft will then have passed away, as it has already nearly passed in this district, and people will be ready to turn their thoughts and attention to other matters besides those connected with red-handed war. Ceres and Flora must be worshipped as well as Mars.

During the progress of the Fair, meetings will be held each evening for the discussion of subjects of importance relating to the agricultural interests of the State, at some of the public halls of the city. On Tuesday evening a Fruit Grower's Convention will be held; on Wednesday evening a Wool Growers' meeting, and on Thursday evening a meeting of the friends of industrial education will take place, at which the subject of an Agricultural College will be discussed.

The Fair commences on Tuesday, the 27th inst., and continues four days. Let all be prepared to attend and furnish something for exhibition.

Not a Candidate.

Mat. H. Carpenter writes to the Milwaukee Sentinel that he cannot accept of the nomination for Congress for the reason that he is a Democrat, and should the rebellion end before his term of service was out, his views of general politics might not accord with those who elected him. He says;

While this war may continue, my votes and efforts in Congress would, I suppose, exactly represent the Republicans of Wisconsin; because I should support every proper measure to strengthen the government and weaken the rebellion; I would not consent to treat with rebels, except upon the basis of unconditional submission to the authority of the constitution and laws; nor would I consent to an armistice, without even knowing that rebels wish to return to obedience, which, in the present state of affairs, would have no effect but to aid and relieve the rebels and weaken the government. Rebels must submit; the government cannot yield.

If Mr. Carpenter and all other men will only help us put down rebellion and do just what Mr. Carpenter says he would do if in Congress, that is all we ask. Let us save the country first and take care of "general politics" afterwards. General McClellan is now much more dangerous than "general politics."

A SCUDDLAGER.—Brick Pomeroy has lately been filling his filthy sheet—the La Crosse Democrat—with abusive and shameless articles on the President, until at last he has provoked the following from the La Crosse Republican:

Who is a "widow maker" of such infamous and intolerable wickedness as the faithless and black-hearted wretch, who abandons to the cold hospitality of the world, the wife whom he has sworn to cherish, and the child who issued from his loins? By the God that made us, we will not permit such a vile creature to defame the unsullied character of the Chief Magistrate of the country of which we are an humble citizen, without stripping from his loathsome carcass every rag that conceals his moral leprosy from public execration. Let us hear no more from that source about "widow makers."

IT is a maxim in the science of fighting not to do the thing that your enemy expects. It is clear from the tone of the rebel press, that the Southern Confederates wish to have a "Democratic" Administration elected. Will the people of the North heed their wishes, and do what their enemies desire by electing such an Administration? That is not the way to put down the rebellion.

LAST year, the Copperheads of Iowa thought it would be extra smart to run an officer in the Union Army for Governor; so, to oppose Col. Stone, the Union candidate, they put up Gen. Tuttle; but the people took him down by about 25,000 majority for Stone, who polled the entire Army vote. The people are not half so green as cunning politicians are apt to imagine.

THE REASON WHY.—It appears that in the published law of Congress, relating to the draft, the reading is, that a draft shall take place "sixty days" after a call is made, in such sub districts as do not fill their quota. The law was passed to read "fifty days." This is one reason why the wheel has not commenced its work.

THE Richmond Examiner, in reviewing the prospect for peace at the hands of the North, says: "One material Yankee success now, and that peace party at the North which our soldiers have created, and now sustain, would sink overwhelmed, abashed and silenced, under a renewed and universal shriek for war."

ACCORDING to a correspondent of the Chicago Journal, Gen. A. J. Smith's command has arrived at Memphis, where a new expedition is organizing, supposed to be designed for Arkansas.

IT is said that Mrs. Tompson, Gen. Jeff. Thompson's wife, is soon to be sent as a lunatic to the asylum at Fulton.

NEWS FROM THE PLAINS.

Gen. Sully's Battle with the Indians—Indian Loss over 1,500—News from our Idaho Emigrants,

We have received a call from our fellow-citizen Joel Hood, general manager of the Idaho Steam Packet Company, who left Fort Union, near the mouth of the Yellow Stone, on the 2nd of August. Fort Union is 2,200 miles northwest of St. Louis.

He gives us some particulars of the fight between the forces of Gen. Sully and the Indians on the 20th of July, on the head waters of the Big Knife river, near Hart river, and at the foot of Turtle mountains. There were 500 lodges, numbering not less than 3,500 warriors.

The principal chiefs came out and had a talk of about an hour with the General. But after taking observations they were satisfied they could whip Gen. Sully's army and so expressed themselves. As an evidence of confidence in their strength, the Indians did not remove their lodges and women, which were only about two miles distant. As soon as the chiefs left, Gen. Sully drew up in line of battle and advanced upon the Indians. He fought about an hour, when the Indians gave way and ran for the mountains, pursued by our forces. The running fight lasted about five hours and until the Indians were all driven into the mountains. The troops on the return found 150 dead Indians on the field. But this was no indication of the actual losses of the Indians, as it is well known that they hide their losses, as much as possible. It was estimated by military men that the entire Indian loss in killed and wounded, was not less than 1500. No prisoners were taken! Capt. Pope with his battery of artillery, and Company B, of the Dacotah cavalry, were the reserve guard, and destroyed the Indian lodges and a large quantity of dried meat and berries, which had been laid in by the Indians for winter use.

The loss of Gen. Sully was only five killed and nine slightly wounded.

The Indians were all armed with the usual smooth-bore carbine, which, though very effective at a range of 100 yards, is not equal to cope with the long range arms of the Federal troops After the battle Gen. Sully moved to the Yellow Stone, about 80 miles above its mouth.

The health of the troops of the expedition has been excellent. The season has been beautiful, with plentiful rains and abundance of feed. The expedition will winter at the different forts on the Missouri and Yellow Stone.

The Milwaukee Idaho emigrants left the steamer at the mouth of the Maria river, and 280 miles from Virginia City. They started on the road on the 10th and 11th of July. The reports from Idaho are not flattering for surface or gulch diggings, but many new discoveries of quartz have been made this summer. Indeed, in this character of mine, the territory is said to be the richest in the world. We have many other items of interest gathered from a conversation with Mr. Hood, but have no space to give them to-day.—Sentinel.

THE Pittsburg Chronicle speaks of volunteering in that city as most encouraging. Within the last two weeks two full regiments have been mustered in, besides many who have been sent to old regiments. In respect to the character of these recruits, the Chronicle says;

A better class of our population is now taking the field against the enemy, composed largely of veterans who have seen service, and of our able-bodied and skilled artisans and tradesmen. Such material will contribute largely to improve the morale of our already invincible but sadly depleted armies.

IN relation to the late decline in gold, the Louisville Democrat says:

"In seeking for the cause, we can only find it in the rapid approach of the day for taking the power from the hands of those who have betrayed the country."

Why, then, did gold advance immediately after the nomination of McClellan, from 233 on Wednesday to 254 on Friday?

VOLUNTEERING IN THE COUNTY.—Under the stimulus of high bounties and the nearness of the draft, there has been considerable volunteering in this county lately. The towns of Columbus, Fountain Prairie and Arlington have filled their quotas, we are informed. The towns of Randolph, Lodi, West Point and Scott are paying large bounties, and we presume have their quotas filled or nearly so. We believe that the town of Lowville and Newport will also fill their quotas, if they have not already done so, as they voted liberal bounties.—Portage Register.

The Sunbury (Pa.) American, in speaking of deserters and bounty jumpers, says that "one thousand deluded individuals, among them many deserters from the ranks of the army, had assembled in Fishing Creek township, armed and equipped for defence in case of an attack. They entrenched themselves on the side of a mountain, with four pieces of artillery, but Gen. Couch marched against them with five hundred and eighty men, and they succumbed without firing a shot."

WHO IS PENDLETON?—The World says "he is principally known to the country as a distinguished lawyer and a member of Congress." It should say, rather, that he is chiefly known as the man who publicly "thanked God that he had never voted or given a dollar in support of the war, or in payment of Abolition soldiers."—Chicago Journal.

LABORERS GOING SOUTH.—On Wednesday evening two hundred Government laborers passed through this city, from the East, on their way to Chattanooga. Yesterday afternoon a special train, bringing five hundred more, passed through for Chattanooga via Indianapolis.—Cleveland Herald, 3d instant.

THE POPE lately, at an audience which he gave to Liszt, the pianist, expressed a wish to hear him play. An instrument had been placed in the throne-room, and the great artist produced an extraordinary effect. After each piece the Pope gave the signal for applause, and afterwards warmly complimented the artist.

THE only sympathizers with rebels in the North are Democrats.

THE only soldiers from the North in the rebel army are Democrats.

THE Republican party never furnishes a traitor to the flag, or a recruit to the rebel army.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see amongst us once more, in good health Major E. S. Bailey, who arrived home last night.

SOCIAL HOP.—There will be a social hop at the Hyatt House next Tuesday evening, Sept. 13th, gotton up by members of the Water Witch fire company.

OVER THE BORDER.—A party arrested for procuring recruits here for another state, has been ordered sent out of Wisconsin. The Provost Marshal will attend to the execution of the order.

STILL MORE OF THEM.—Yesterday a large squad of men in Union blue were forwarded to Madison, and another one has gone to-day, among which we notice Mr. E. H. Benham of this city.

NOTICE.—Owing to instructions received by the Express Agent last evening to wit: "Refuse all goods south of Nashville, until further notice," I shall not send the box to the 12th Wis. Battery at present. As soon as it can be sent I will give due notice. G. R. CURTIS.

SOUND.—The following streak of sound common sense in reference to its business is from the Juneau County Argus, and indicates that publishers are beginning to conduct their business as other people do, to wit: get pay for what they do. The farmer or merchant who should in these times carry on his business as many newspapers do, would be called, not to put too fine a point on it, a fool. What sympathy would the community have for the failure of a farmer who should sell to several thousand different customers his produce in small lots and wait an indefinite time for his pay; or the merchant who should thus scatter his goods broadcast over the State. But this is precisely the way a vast number of newspapers are conducted, and as a consequence their financial affairs are everlastingly in the drag. There is no reason why they should not demand and receive pay in advance for their subscriptions. So far as our own subscription list is concerned, we have a right to feel proud of it, as being one of the most prompt paying we ever saw, and the only fault the great bulk of our subscribers find with us is that we do not invariably demand pay for our paper in advance. In fact so universal has been the expression of the wish that we would do so, that we are making preparations to adopt a system of putting on the address, which will render such a course imperative; but as each paper will have upon it the time when the subscription expires, no one will be at loss to know the proper time for renewal:

Our readers will please notice that henceforth no paper will leave this office unless paid for in advance, and send in their names and money in time to receive our next issue. We would like to furnish every one who desires to support us, with a paper gratis, but we can't do it. We have tried the trust system, and found it a failure, and the consequence was that we soon became pecuniarily embarrased. We know that all our old subscribers that have not paid are good for it; but our journeymen and creditors "can't see it." Our stock costs us so high that we are unable to print any more copies than we get pay for. We are truly grateful to our readers for their patronage and support, and would say: "help, Cash-us lest we sink!" —All those who have paid in advance, will receive the Argus as long as paid for and no longer.

DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUSNESS, AND DEBILITY, DR. STRICKLAND'S TONIC.—We can recommend those suffering with Loss of Appetite, Indigestion, or Dyspepsia, Nervousness and Nervous Debility, to use Strickland's Tonic. It is a vegetable preparation, free from alcoholic liquors; it strengthens the whole nervous system; it creates a good appetite, and is warranted to cure Dyspepsia and Nervous Debility.

For sale by Druggists generally at $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. A. Strickland, 6 East Fourth street, Cincinnati, O.

FROM WASHINGTON.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The Commercial's Washington special says five of the officers of the Kearsarge have arrived there to gve evidence respecting the conduct of the English yacht Deerhound.

A conscripted North Carolinian, now here, says the condition of that state is terrible. The conscripting guard and citizens shoot each other daily. He thinks the rebel home guard will be bushwhacked out of existence soon.

An official dispatch from Secretary Stanton, dated on the 6th inst., announces the death of Morgan and capture of his staff, substantially as reported yesterday by telegraph. The "official" further says:

"Nothing has been received by the Department from Atlanta since the 4th inst., nor anything south of Nashville on account of the derangements of the telegraph wires by the prevailing storms. No movements of importance have taken place in the Shenandoah Valley."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Fifteen rebel deserters were brought here from the Army of the Potomac and were released upon taking the oath, and furnished with transportation as far north as Philadelphia. These deserters represent Alabama, Florida and North Carolina regiments and some of them said they had either to enlist in the rebel service or starve, in the efforts to fill the quotas of towns.

An undue proportion of landsmen have been enlisted in the navy and to remedy the evil an order has been issued restricting the number to fifteen per cent. of the whole number of enlistments. This course is rendered necessary to prevent the accumulation of a large surplus of unserviceable recruits. Ordinary seamen, firemen, &c., are still wanted.

The free Military Academy for the instruction of applicants for the command of colored troops, instituted in Philadelphia, will be closed on the 15th inst.

During the last ten days the number of men mustered into the army has averaged 3000 a day. On the 2d inst., 4136 were mustered in, and on the 3d 6160. These are the latest reports received. The number mustered in on the 3d inst. is probably greater than has been mustered in during any other one day for nearly two years.

The subscriptions to the 7-30 loan reported to the treasury department to-day amounts to $326,000, and to the 10-40 loan $140,000.

About 64,000 widows are receiving pentions under laws passed with reference to the present war.

FROM THE SOUTH.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The Richmond Sentinel of Saturday says: official advices from Gen. Forrest to the first inst. have been received here. He says the enemy evacuated the Memphis & Charleston railroad up to Memphis, and that the Yankee troops are moving up the Mississippi river enroute for Virginia and Missouri.

Gov. Vance of North Carolina has issued a proclamation offering a free pardon to the many deserters lurking in the woods and mountains, threatening the extreme penalties of the law to those who are caught, as well as against their aiders and abettors. Their are hunted like guilty felons.

The Sentinel commenting on the Chicago nominations says McClellan who was formerly a decided war man is represented to have greatly modified, if not in deed, abandoned his belligerent sentiments. The support given him by so many decided peace men tends strongly to confirm the report, and nothing would be easier than for McClellan to reconcile a declaration for peace in the present state of the question, due as he may suppose to Lincoln's mismanagement of the, war with his past speeches in favor of war. Of Mr. Pendleton's position there is no uncertainty. He is an ardent peace man, and the fact that such a man was nominated is a strong proof that McClellan's position cannot be widely variant. The contest which now commences will be brief, but violent. Two months will close it and decide which shall rule. Perhaps there are no two public men in the United States separated by a greater animosity than exists between Lincoln and McClellan and their respective partisans. There is probably no one by whom Lincoln would not prefer to be beaten than by McClellan. This will add venom to the contest.

In another article the Sentinel says if we have peace we must conquer it, and we may conquer it speedily if we but perfrom our duty at this juncture as we have hitherto. Let us not remit our exertions because the enemy seems much exhausted and the prospects of peace seems improving. That exhaustion will speedily disappear and he will prepare for new and mightier efforts if dampened zeal and diminished numbers on our part give him room to still hope for conquest. The prospects of peace and independence now so bright, will fade away and vanish, if the ranks of our armies be thinned by deserters, by the indifference or neglect of our home keeping people, or by the careless discharge of the duties by our enrolling officers.

FROM THE UPPER POTOMAC.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—A special to the Bulletin from Harpers Ferry dated the 5th inst., says an ambulance train of 300 wagons, after leaving the wounded, was captured by Mosby, the train being without an escort. Capt. Blazer pursued the rebels and recaptured 50 horses and prisoners. Maj. Kellogg of the 123d Ohio, and Dr. Shelling, of the 36th Ohio, are among the prisoners captured by Mosby.

There was no fighting at Berryville on Sunday, and there is no news from there to-day, Monday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The Times' correspondent with Sheridan near Berryville the 4th, says Gen. Sheridan's entire army is now building rifle pits, entrenchments, &c. Our present line is almost the same one we occupied when falling back from Winchester, and is capable of a strong, stubborn resistence.

The same correspondent gives the following account of the battle of Berryville:

At the sound of hostilities our men turned out and were rapidly under arms scarcely waiting for the bugles to give the alarm, and quickly the 6th Virginia and 36th Ohio formed in line of battle and moved steadily forward of the pickets who were all hotly engaged disputing the farther advance of the enemy, at last getting within striking distance when the charge sounded and on went our troops, driving the rebels before, and regaining one line of rifle pits held by our skirmishers before the fight. The enemy seemed determined to regain and hold them if possible, and they soon came up and massed a heavy force preparatory to a charge.—

No sooner was it ascertained that a strong body of the enemy were maneuvering on our front than Gen. Crook ordered up Duval's and Shenbourn's division, and with their support our advance calmly awaited the attack. The disposition of our troops by Gen. Crook was made not a minute too soon, for Early hurled his force upon us with redoubled fury only to be met with a stern and stubborn resistence, ultimately resulting in a complete repulse. Again and again our lines received their furious charges, only to send them back baffled and disorganized. The battle lasted until after darkness, and the firing was continued almost to midnight.

FROM SHERMAN'S DEPARTMENT.

LOUISVILLE, September 4.—The Nashville Union states that a Convention met at the Capitol yesterday, elected Samuel P. Mulligan President, passed resolutions, and adjourned till the 5th inst.

Three thousand rebel cavalry under Williams with 36 pieces of artillery, were near Murfreesboro Saturday morning and were attacked by Gen. Milroy. Brisk fighting continued all day Sunday and the rebels retreated towards Lucerne, followed by Milroy's force which made several attacks during Sunday. Our loss was 10 killed and 20 wounded, including Colonel Eifiert, 2nd Ky., killed. The rebel loss is thought to be larger than ours. Milroy having exhausted his ammunition, joined Rosseau's force near Franklin. Wheeler's main force was on Sunday six miles south of Columbia. Williams detachment is reported to have joined him. Rosseau is closely following. The damage done to the railroad is very slight.

Later dispatches from Milroy reports eleven rebels captured, and 20 killed and wounded.

The Nashville Times says dispatches received this morning reports Rosseau pursuing Wheeler south of Duck river. In a charge upon the rebels who had dismounted to fight, we captured five hundred horses.

Official dispatches received at Nashville announce that in the late fight before Atlanta the rebels lost three thousand killed and wounded, and 2000 prisoners, including a Brig. Gen, and a large amount of camp equipage. Our loss was trifling. The rebels are retreating in great haste.

Official information from the front, dated Sunday, 27 miles below Atlanta, represents Sherman pushing rapidly southward of Atlanta.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 7.—The Commercial has the particulars of Sherman's operations to the 2d. On the 30th ult. the 4th and 23d corps struck the Macon road five miles beyond East Point Junction, while the Army of the Tennessee and Kilpatrick's cavalry were briskly skirmishing with the enemy on our right, driving them across Flint River toward Jonesboro. The 15th corps took position on a prominent hill which was the key to enemy's position. Other corps formed on the right and left. The 16th, somewhat retired, formed the extreme right, the 17th on its left, the 24th and 23d corps forming the connecting line and extending beyond the railroad on the left. The enemy burst in masses on the 15th corps, but were steadily and repeatedly repulsed, they losing several general officers including Maj. Gen. Anderson, mortally wounded, five Colonels and Majors wounded and taken prisoners, besides 1000 rank and file killed, wounded and captured. Our loss slight, our men fighting behind breastworks.

Next morning the 25th corps marched along the Macon Road destroying the track for several miles, and at 4 o'clock took up a position on the left of the 15th corps, which was formed in line of battle. The enemy had entrenched themselves in front and the 14th corps was ordered to assault them. The cavalry and infantry steadily advanced under a scourging fire of musketry and artillery, and after a desperate conflict of two hours drove the enemy from their works, capturing two batteries, one of them Loomis' battery captured at Chicamauga, some battle-flags and a large number of prisoners, including Gen Ganvens and his Adjutant Gen. Brig. Gen. Cummings was mortally wounded.

Hardee appears to have commanded those forces engaged, and early in the night retreated south. Hood finding his situation in Atlanta desperate also retreated burning 2000 bales of cotton and destroying his ammunition. At break of day Sherman put his whole army in motion with the object of getting between Hood and Hardee. He may not succeed in this as Hood has 12 hours the start of him. The defeat had a most paralizing effect on Hood's army, the regulars and militia breaking for home on all sides. When the correspondent left Jonesboro Sherman was fiercely pressing the rebel rear.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—H. G. telegraphs to the Tribune from Syracuse, he says: I have cheering reports of recruiting throughout our state, every where the best of spirits prevails. Men are going forward, many of whom are hardy and strong farmer's sons, intelligent and resolute and patriotic men. Little exertion will be required to fill our state quota by the middle of the month.

Gen. Joe. Hooker make an effective and stirring war speech at Watertown last evening.

FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, September 7.—The steamship Scotia, from Liverpool on the 27th ult. and Queenstown on the 28th ult., arrived here at 5 o'clock P. M.

The Daily News and Morning Post both have editorials showing that the seizure of the Georgia was legal, and that the British Government cannot interfere, as a Confederate war vessel could not legally be sold in a British port.

The Liverpool Courier editorially states that Mr. Bates did not purchase the Georgia till the custom officers authorized and informed him she should be registered as a British vessel, and she was accordingly so registered. It also publishes evidence that her charter for service to the Portugese Government was bona fide.

The Army & Navy Gazette admits that the Federal success at Mobile, even in its present proportions, is considerable; and as regards peace it declares its belief that the existence of a peace party is mythical, and that as long as there is a ray of hope the North will march onward to its end—"empire."

FROM VERMONT

MONTPELIER, VT., Sept. 6.—The annual election for State officers took place to-day. The gubernatorial candidates are the same as last year, Gov. Smith being voted by the Republican Unionists, and Hon. T. P. Redfield by the Democrats. The vote is light, although somewhat fuller than last year. Only partial returns are received, but enough is known to indicate the election of Union candidates by considerably larger majorities that last year. We have the representative vote from forty towns, and all return Union men but two.

"The Blue Hen's Chickens" send a bad egg to Little Mac.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept 6.—At the municipal election to-day, the Union men carried the city by 450 majority, electing every candidate in every Ward.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The Tribune's special at Butler's headquarters dated the 5th, says that Dutch Gap canal, as a canal, is so far completed that its success is beyond question. This river will be turned into a new and a better channel and commerce will be forever facilitated, but of how much as a military expedient, remains to be seen. Rebel gunboats are now within a mile or two above it. Fort Drury is above it, and there may be obstructions in the channel above, however, by means of it we shall flank Howlett's battery which is almost as formidable as Drury's Bluffs, and shall cut off six miles of river.

FROM NEW YORK.

ALBANY, Sept. 5.—By direction of Gov. Seymour flags were displayed from all the public building, and 100 guns fired at noon to-day in honor of the occupation of Atlanta by Gen. Sherman's forces, and the victories of Admiral Farragut in the harbor of Mobile.

KILLED BY INDIANS.—It has been discovered that Messrs. Knights and Grover, of Stillwater, who have been missing for some time, were killed by the Indians, and buried in a lake. A squaw has confessed to the whole massacre and how it was done.—Hudson (Wis.) Star.

THE Harvest of this county has, by the blessing of good weather, been gathered in the best possible condition. The yield of small grain is much greater than was anticipated at the beginning.—Fond du Lac Press.

From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1st, 1864.

Gentlemen:—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoofland's German Bitters. During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.

Truly your friend, THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

From John B. Withersham, Esq, firm of Withersham and Hutchinson, the celebrated manufacturers of Fancy Iron Works, 259 Canal street:

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz, that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhoea.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific, and, when I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.

Truly yours, JOHN B. WITHERSHAM.
New York, Feb. 2, 1864.

From Julius Lee, Esq, firm of Lee & Walker, the most extensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

February 8th, 1864.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when everything else had failed

Yours truly, JULIUS LEE.

From the Hon. Jacob Broom,

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7th, 1863.

Gentlemen:—In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters in my family, I have no hesitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it, I find it to be an unequalled tonic and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.

Truly yours, JACOB BROOM, 1707 Spruce.

From Rev. W. D. Seigfried, Pastor of the 12th Baptist Church:

PHILADELPHIA, December 26th, 1863.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters," whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action not only upon the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles.

Very respectfully yours, W. D. SEIGRIED,
No. 254 Shackamaxon Street.

From the Rev. Thos. Winter, D. D., Pastor of Roxbury Baptist Church:

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters. I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been very materially benefitted. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.

Respectfully yours, T. WINTER,
Roxbourough, Pa.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks county, Pa.

Dr. C. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's German Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.

Yours, with respect, J. S. HERMAN.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

The State Fair.

Most of our readers are probably aware that Wisconsin is to have a State Fair this fall and that Janesville is the point fixed upon by the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society at which to hold it. Such is the fact, and workmen are already busy in preparing the necessary buildings for the great show that is to be. Prof. Hoyt, of Madison, Secretary of the Society, informs us that the prospects now are very good for a large attendance of the farmers, mechanics and fruit growers of the State, not to mention a liberal number of gentlemen from our neighboring states, who are interested in that great and dignified calling which lies at the foundation of all other pursuits

The great cloud of the draft will then have passed away, as it has already nearly passed in this district, and people will be ready to turn their thoughts and attention to other matters besides those connected with red-handed war. Ceres and Flora must be worshipped as well as Mars.

During the progress of the Fair, meetings will be held each evening for the discussion of subjects of importance relating to the agricultural interests of the State, at some of the public halls of the city. On Tuesday evening a Fruit Grower's Convention will be held; on Wednesday evening a Wool Growers' meeting, and on Thursday evening a meeting of the friends of industrial education will take place, at which the subject of an Agricultural College will be discussed.

The Fair commences on Tuesday, the 27th inst., and continues four days. Let all be prepared to attend and furnish something for exhibition.

Not a Candidate.

Mat. H. Carpenter writes to the Milwaukee Sentinel that he cannot accept of the nomination for Congress for the reason that he is a Democrat, and should the rebellion end before his term of service was out, his views of general politics might not accord with those who elected him. He says;

While this war may continue, my votes and efforts in Congress would, I suppose, exactly represent the Republicans of Wisconsin; because I should support every proper measure to strengthen the government and weaken the rebellion; I would not consent to treat with rebels, except upon the basis of unconditional submission to the authority of the constitution and laws; nor would I consent to an armistice, without even knowing that rebels wish to return to obedience, which, in the present state of affairs, would have no effect but to aid and relieve the rebels and weaken the government. Rebels must submit: the government cannot yield.

If Mr. Carpenter and all other men will only help us put down rebellion and do just what Mr. Carpenter says he would do if in Congress, that is all we ask. Let us save the country first and take care of "general politics" afterwards. General McClellan is now much more dangerous than "general politics."

A SOCDOLAGER.—Brick Pomeroy has lately been filling his filthy sheet—the La Crosse Democrat—with abusive and shameless articles on the President, until at last he has provoked the following from the La Crosse Republican:

Who is a "widow maker" of such infamous and intolerable wickedness as the faithless and black-hearted wretch, who abandons to the cold hospitality of the world, the wife whom he has sworn to cherish, and the child who issued from his loins? By the God that made us, we will not permit such a vile creature to defame the unsullied character of the Chief Magistrate of the country of which we are an humble citizen, without stripping from his loathsome carcass every rag that conceals his moral leprosy from public execration. Let us hear no more from that source about "widow makers."

IT is a maxim in the science of fighting not to do the thing that your enemy expects. It is clear from the tone of the rebel press, that the Southern Confederates wish to have a "Democratic" Administration elected. Will the people of the North heed their wishes, and do what their enemies desire, by electing such an Administration? That is not the way to put down the rebellion.

LAST year, the Copperheads of Iowa thought it would be extra smart to run an officer in the Union Army for Governor; so, to oppose Col. Stone, the Union candidate, they put up Gen. Tuttle; but the people took him down by about 25,000 majority for Stone, who polled the entire Army vote. The people are not half so green as cunning politicians are apt to imagine.

THE REASON WHY.—It appears that in the published law of Congress, relating to the draft, the reading is, that a draft shall take place "sixty days" after a call is made, in such sub-districts as do not fill their quota. The law was passed to read "fifty days." This is one reason why the wheel has not commenced its work.

THE Richmond Examiner, in reviewing the prospect for peace at the hands of the North, says: "One material Yankee success now, and that peace party at the North which our soldiers have created, and now sustain, would sink overwhelmed, abashed and silenced, under a renewed and universal shriek for war."

ACCORDING to a correspondent of the Chicago Journal, Gen. A. J. Smith's command has arrived at Memphis, where a new expedition is organizing, supposed to be designed for Arkansas.

IT is said that Mrs. Tompson, Gen. Jeff. Thompson's wife, is soon to be sent as a lunatic to the asylum at Fulton.

NEWS FROM THE PLAINS.

Gen. Sully's Battle with the Indians—Indian Loss over 1,500—News from our Idaho Emigrants,

We have received a call from our fellow-citizen Joel Hood, general manager of the Idaho Steam Packet Company, who left Fort Union, near the mouth of the Yellow Stone, on the 2nd of August. Fort Union is 2,200 miles northwest of St. Louis.

He gives us some particulars of the fight between the forces of Gen. Sully and the Indians on the 20th of July, on the head waters of the Big Knife river, near Hart river, and at the foot of Turtle mountains. There were 500 lodges, numbering not less than 3,500 warriors.

The principal chiefs came out and had a talk of about an hour with the General. But after taking observations they were satisfied they could whip Gen. Sully's army and so expressed themselves. As an evidence of confidence in their strength, the Indians did not remove their lodges and women, which were only about two miles distant. As soon as the chiefs left, Gen. Sully drew up in line of battle and advanced upon the Indians. He fought about an hour, when the Indians gave way and ran for the mountains, pursued by our forces. The running fight lasted about five hours and until the Indians were all driven into the mountains. The troops on the return found 150 dead Indians on the field. But this was no indication of the actual losses of the Indians, as it is well known that they hide their losses, as much as possible. It was estimated by military men that the entire Indian loss in killed and wounded, was not less than 1500. No prisoners were taken! Capt. Pope with his battery of artillery, and Company B, of the Dacotah cavalry, were the reserve guard, and destroyed the Indian lodges and a large quantity of dried meat and berries, which had been laid in by the Indians for winter use.

The loss of Gen. Sully was only five killed and nine slightly wounded.

The Indians were all armed with the usual smooth-bore carbine, which, though very effective at a range of 100 yards, is not equal to cope with the long range arms of the Federal troops. After the battle Gen. Sully moved to the Yellow Stone, about 80 miles above its mouth.

The health of the troops of the expedition has been excellent. The season has been beautiful, with plentiful rains and abundance of feed. The expedition will winter at the different forts on the Missouri and Yellow Stone.

The Milwaukee Idaho emigrants left the steamer at the mouth of the Maria river, and 280 miles from Virginia City. They started on the road on the 10th and 11th of July. The reports from Idaho are not flattering for surface or gulch diggings, but many new discoveries of quartz have been made this summer. Indeed, in this character of mine, the territory is said to be the richest in the world. We have many other items of interest gathered from a conversation with Mr. Hood, but have no space to give them to-day.—Sentinel.

THE Pittsburg Chronicle speaks of volunteering in that city as most encouraging. Within the last two weeks two full regiments have been mustered in, besides many who have been sent to old regiments. In respect to the character of these recruits, the Chronicle says;

A better class of our population is now taking the field against the enemy, composed largely of veterans who have seen service, and of our able-bodied and skilled artisans and tradesmen. Such material will contribute largely to improve the morale of our already invincible but sadly depleted armies.

IN relation to the late decline in gold, the Louisville Democrat says:

"In seeking for the cause, we can only find it in the rapid approach of the day for taking the power from the hands of those who have betrayed the country."

Why, then, did gold advance immediately after the nomination of McClellan, from 233 on Wednesday to 254 on Friday?

VOLUNTEERING IN THE COUNTY.—Under the stimulus of high bounties and the nearness of the draft, there has been considerable volunteering in this county lately. The towns of Columbus, Fountain Prairie and Arlington have filled their quotas, we are informed. The towns of Randolph, Lodi, West Point and Scott are paying large bounties, and we presume have their quotas filled or nearly so. We believe that the town of Lowville and Newport will also fill their quotas, if they have not already done so, as they voted liberal bounties.—Portage Register.

The Sunbury (Pa.) American, in speaking of deserters and bounty jumpers, says that "one thousand deluded individuals, among them many deserters from the ranks of the army, had assembled in Fishing Creek township, armed and equipped for defence in case of an attack. They entrenched themselves on the side of a mountain, with four pieces of artillery, but Gen. Couch marched against them with five hundred and eighty men, and they succumbed without firing a shot."

WHO IS PENDLETON?—The World says "he is principally known to the country as a distinguished lawyer and a member of Congress." It should say, rather, that he is chiefly known as the man who publicly "thanked God that he had never voted or given a dollar in support of the war, or in payment of Abolition soldiers."—Chicago Journal.

LABORERS GOING SOUTH.—On Wednesday evening two hundred Government laborers passed through this city, from the East, on their way to Chattanooga. Yesterday afternoon a special train, bringing five hundred more, passed through for Chattanooga via Indianapolis.—Cleveland Herald. 3d instant.

THE POPE lately, at an audience which he gave to Liszt, the pianist, expressed a wish to hear him play. An instrument had been placed in the throne-room, and the great artist produced an extraordinary effect. After each piece the Pope gave the signal for applause, and afterwards warmly complimented the artist.

THE only sympathizers with rebels in the North are Democrats.

THE only soldiers from the North in the rebel army are Democrats.

THE Republican party never furnishes a traitor to the flag, or a recruit to the rebel army.

Sept. 9th 1864.

SOUND.—The following streak of sound common sense in reference to its business is from the Juneau County Argus, and indicates that publishers are beginning to conduct their business as other people do, to wit: get pay for what they do. The farmer or merchant who should in these times carry on his business as many newspapers do, would be called, not to put too fine a point on it, a fool. What sympathy would the community have for the failure of a farmer who should sell to several thousand different customers his produce in small lots and wait an indefinite time for his pay; or the merchant who should thus scatter his goods broadcast over the State. But this is precisely the way a vast number of newspapers are conducted, and as a consequence their financial affairs are everlastingly in the drag. There is no reason why they should not demand and receive pay in advance for their subscriptions. So far as our own subscription list is concerned, we have a right to feel proud of it, as being one of the most prompt paying we ever saw, and the only fault the great bulk of our subscribers find with us is that we do not invariably demand pay for our paper in advance. In fact so universal has been the expression of the wish that we would do so, that we are making preparations to adopt a system of putting on the address, which will render such a course imperative; but as each paper will have upon it the time when the subscription expires, no one will be at loss to know the proper time for renewal:

Our readers will please notice that henceforth no paper will leave this office unless paid for in advance, and send in their names and money in time to receive our next issue. We would like to furnish every one who desires to support us, with a paper gratis, but we can't do it. We have tried the trust system, and found it a failure, and the consequence was that we soon became pecuniarily embarrased. We know that all our old subscribers that have not paid are good for it; but our journeymen and creditors "can't see it." Our stock costs us so high that we are unable to print any more copies than we get pay for. We are truly grateful to our readers for their patronage and support, and would say: "help, Cash-us lest we sink!" —All those who have paid in advance, will receive the Argus as long as paid for and no longer.

DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUSNESS, AND DEBILITY, DR. STRICKLAND'S TONIC.—We can recommend those suffering with Loss of Appetite, Indigestion, or Dyspepsia, Nervousness and Nervous Debility, to use Strickland's Tonic. It is a vegetable preparation, free from alcoholic liquors; it strengthens the whole nervous system; it creates a good appetite, and is warranted to cure Dyspepsia and Nervous Debility.

FROM WASHINGTON.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The Commercial's Washington special says five of the officers of the Kearsarge have arrived there to give evidence respecting the conduct of the English yacht Deerhound.

A conscripted North Carolinian, now here, says the condition of that state is terrible. The conscripting guard and citizens shoot each other daily. He thinks the rebel home guard will be bushwhacked out of existence soon.

An official dispatch from Secretary Stanton, dated on the 6th inst., announces the death of Morgan and capture of his staff, substantially as reported yesterday by telegraph. The "official" further says:

"Nothing has been received by the Department from Atlanta since the 4th inst., nor anything south of Nashville on account of the derangements of the telegraph wires by the prevailing storms. No movements of importance have taken place in the Shenandoah Valley."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Fifteen rebel deserters were brought here from the Army of the Potomac and were released upon taking the oath, and furnished with transportation as far north as Philadelphia. These deserters represent Alabama, Florida and North Carolina regiments and some of them said they had either to enlist in the rebel service or starve, in the efforts to fill the quotas of towns.

An undue proportion of landsmen have been enlisted in the navy and to remedy the evil an order has been issued restricting the number to fifteen per cent. of the whole number of enlistments. This course is rendered necessary to prevent the accumulation of a large surplus of unserviceable recruits. Ordinary seamen, firemen, &c., are still wanted.

The free Military Academy for the instruction of applicants for the command of colored troops, instituted in Philadelphia, will be closed on the 15th inst.

During the last ten days the number of men mustered into the army has averaged 3000 a day. On the 2d inst., 4136 were mustered in, and on the 3d 6160. These are the latest reports received. The number mustered in on the 3d inst. is probably greater than has been mustered in during any other one day for nearly two years.

The subscriptions to the 7-30 loan reported to the treasury department to-day amounts to $326,000, and to the 10-40 loan $140,000.

About 64,000 widows are receiving pensions under laws passed with reference to the present war.

FROM THE SOUTH.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The Richmond Sentinel of Saturday says: official advices from Gen. Forrest to the first inst. have been received here. He says the enemy evacuated the Memphis & Charleston railroad up to Memphis, and that the Yankee troops are moving up the Mississippi river enroute for Virginia and Missouri.

Gov. Vance of North Carolina has issued a proclamation offering a free pardon to the many deserters lurking in the woods and mountains, threatening the extreme penalties of the law to those who are caught, as well as against their aiders and abettors. Their are hunted like guilty felons.

The Sentinel commenting on the Chicago nominations says McClellan who was formerly a decided war man is represented to have greatly modified, if not in deed, abandoned his belligerent sentiments. The support given him by so many decided peace men tends strongly to confirm the report, and nothing would be easier than for McClellan to reconcile a declaration for peace in the present state of the question, due as he may suppose to Lincoln's mismanagement of the, war with his past speeches in favor of war. Of Mr. Pendleton's position there is no uncertainty. He is an ardent peace man, and the fact that such a man was nominated is a strong proof that McClellan's position cannot be widely variant. The contest which now commences will be brief, but violent. Two months will close it and decide which shall rule. Perhaps there are no two public men in the United States separated by a greater animosity than exists between Lincoln and McClellan and their respective partisans. There is probably no one by whom Lincoln would not prefer to be beaten than by McClellan. This will add venom to the contest.

In another article the Sentinel says if we have peace we must conquer it, and we may conquer it speedily if we but per- from our duty at this juncture as we have hitherto. Let us not remit our exertions because the enemy seems much exhausted and the prospects of peace seems improving. That exhaustion will speedily disappear and he will prepare for new and mightier efforts if dampened zeal and diminished numbers on our part give him room to still hope for conquest. The prospects of peace and independence now so bright, will fade away and vanish, if the ranks of our armies be thinned by deserters, by the indifference or neglect of our home keeping people, or by the careless discharge of the duties by our enrolling officers.

FROM THE UPPER POTOMAC.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—A special to the Bulletin from Harpers Ferry dated the 5th inst., says an ambulance train of 300 wagons, after leaving the wounded, was captured by Mosby, the train being without an escort. Capt. Blazer pursued the rebels and recaptured 50 horses and prisoners. Maj. Kellogg of the 123d Ohio, and Dr. Shelling, of the 36th Ohio, are among the prisoners captured by Mosby.

There was no fighting at Berryville on Sunday, and there is no news from there to-day, Monday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The Times' correspondent with Sheridan near Berryville the 4th, says Gen. Sheridan's entire army is now building rifle pits, entrenchments, &c. Our present line is almost the same one we occupied when falling back from Winchester, and is capable of a strong, stubborn resistence.

The same correspondent gives the following account of the battle of Berryville:

At the sound of hostilities our men turned out and were rapidly under arms scarcely waiting for the bugles to give the alarm, and quickly the 6th Virginia and 36th Ohio formed in line of battle and moved steadily forward of the pickets who were all hotly engaged disputing the farther advance of the enemy, at last getting within striking distance when the charge sounded and on went our troops, driving the rebels before, and regaining one line of rifle pits held by our skirmishers before the fight. The enemy seemed determined to regain and hold them if possible, and they soon came up and massed a heavy force preparatory to a charge.—No sooner was it ascertained that a strong body of the enemy were maneuvering on our front than Gen. Crook ordered up Duval's and Shenbourn's division, and with their support our advance calmly awaited the attack. The disposition of our troops by Gen. Crook was made not a minute too soon, for Early hurled his force upon us with redoubled fury only to be met with a stern and stubborn resistence, ultimately resulting in a complete repulse. Again and again our lines received their furious charges, only to send them back baffled and disorganized. The battle lasted until after darkness, and the firing was continued almost to midnight.

FROM SHERMAN'S DEPARTMENT.

LOUISVILLE, September 4.—The Nashville Union states that a Convention met at the Capitol yesterdoy, elected Samuel P. Mulligan President, passed resolutions, and adjourned till the 5th inst.

Three thousand rebel cavalry under Williams with 30 pieces of artillery, were near Murfreesboro Saturday morning and were attacked by Gen. Milroy. Brisk fighting continued all day Sunday and the rebels retreated towards Lucerne, followed by Milroy's force which made several attacks during Sunday. Our loss was 10 killed and 20 wounded, including Colonel Eifiert, 2nd Ky., killed. The rebel loss is thought to be larger than ours. Milroy having exhausted his ammunition, joined Rosseau's force near Franklin. Wheeler's main force was on Sunday six miles south of Columbia. Williams detachment is reported to have joined him. Rosseau is closely following. The damage done to the railroad is very slight.

Later dispatches from Milroy reports eleven rebels captured, and 20 killed and wounded.

The Nashville Times says dispatches received this morning reports Rosseau pursuing Wheeler south of Duck river. In a charge upon the rebels who had dismounted to fight, we captured five hundred horses.

Official dispatches received at Nashville announce that in the late fight before Atlanta the rebels lost three thousand killed and wounded, and 2000 prisoners, including a Brig. Gen, and a large amount of camp equipage. Our loss was trifling. The rebels are retreating in great haste.

Official information from the front, dated Sunday, 27 miles below Atlanta. represents Sherman pushing rapidly southward of Atlanta.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 7.—The Commercial has the particulars of Sherman's operations to the 2d. On the 30th ult. the 4th and 23d corps struck the Macon road five miles beyond East Point Junction, while the Army of the Tennessee and Kilpatrick's cavalry were briskly skirmishing with the enemy on our right, driving them across Flint River toward Jonesboro. The 15th corps took position on a prominent hill which was the key to enemy's position. Other corps formed on the right and left. The 16th, somewhat retired, formed the extreme right, the 17th on its left, the 24th and 23d corps forming the connecting line and extending beyond the railroad on the left. The enemy burst in masses on the 15th corps, but were steadily and repeatedly repulsed, they losing several general officers including Maj. Gen. Anderson, mortally wounded, five Colonels and Majors wounded and taken prisoners, besides 1000 rank and file killed, wounded and captured. Our loss slight, our men fighting behind breastworks.

Next morning the 25th corps marched along the Macon Road destroying the track for several miles, and at 4 o'clock took up a position on the left of the 15th corps, which was formed in line of battle. The enemy had entrenched themselves in front and the 14th corps was ordered to assault them. The cavalry and infantry steadily advanced under a scourging fire of musketry and artillery, and after a desperate conflict of two hours drove the enemy from their works, capturing two batteries, one of them Loomis' battery captured at Chicamauga, some battle-flags and a large number of prisoners, including Gen Garvens and his Adjutant Gen. Brig. Gen. Cummings was mortally wounded.

Hardee appears to have commanded those forces engaged, and early in the night retreated south. Hood finding his situation in Atlanta desperate also retreated burning 2000 bales of cotton and destroying his ammunition. At break of day Sherman put his whole army in motion with the object of getting between Hood and Hardee. He may not succeed in this as Hood has 12 hours the start of him. The defeat had a most paralizing effect on Hood's army, the regulars and militia breaking for home on all sides. When the correspondent left Jonesboro Sherman was fiercely pressing the rebel rear.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—H. G. telegraphs to the Tribune from Syracuse, he says: I have cheering reports of recruiting throughout our state, every where the best of spirits prevails. Men are going forward, many of whom are hardy and strong farmer's sons, intelligent and resolute and patriotic men. Little exertion will be required to fill our state quota by the middle of the month.

FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, September 7.—The steamship Scotia, from Liverpool on the 27th ult. and Queenstown on the 28th ult., arrived here at 5 o'clock P. M.

The Daily News and Morning Post both have editorials showing that the seizure of the Georgia was legal, and that the British Government cannot interfere, as a Confederate war vessel could not legally be sold in a British port.

The Liverpool Courier editorially states that Mr. Bates did not purchase the Georgia till the custom officers authorized and informed him she should be registered as a British vessel, and she was accordingly so registered. It also publishes evidence that her charter for service to the Portugese Government was bona fide.

The Army & Navy Gazette admits that the Federal success at Mobile, even in its present proportions, is considerable; and as regards peace it declares its belief that the existence of a peace party is mythical, and that as long as there is a ray of hope the North will march onward to its end—"empire."

FROM VERMONT

MONTPELIER, VT., Sept. 6.—The annual election for State officers took place to-day. The gubernatorial candidates are the same as last year, Gov. Smith being voted by the Republican Unionists, and Hon. T. P. Redfield by the Democrats. The vote is light, although somewhat fuller than last year. Only partial returns are received, but enough is known to indicate the election of Union candidates by considerably larger majorities that last year. We have the representative vote from forty towns, and all return Union men but two.

"The Blue Hen's Chickens" send a bad egg to Little Mac.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept 6.—At the municipal election to-day, the Union men carried the city by 450 majority, electing every candidate in every Ward.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The Tribune's special at Butler's headquarters dated the 5th, says that Dutch Gap canal, as a canal, is so far completed that its success is beyond question. This river will be turned into a new and a better channel and commerce will be forever facilitated, but of how much as a military expedient, remains to be seen. Rebel gunboats are now within a mile or two above it. Fort Drury is above it, and there may be obstructions in the channel above, however, by means of it we shall flank Howlett's battery which is almost as formidable as Drury's Bluffs, and shall cut off six miles of river.

FROM NEW YORK.

ALBANY, Sept. 5.—By direction of Gov. Seymour flags were displayed from all the public building, and 100 guns fired at noon to-day in honor of the occupation of Atlanta by Gen. Sherman's forces, and the victories of Admiral Farragut in the harbor of Mobile.

KILLED BY INDIANS.—It has been discovered that Messrs. Knights and Grover, of Stillwater, who have been missing for some time, were killed by the Indians, and buried in a lake. A squaw has confessed to the whole massacre and how it was done.—Hudson (Wis.) Star.

From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1st, 1864.

Gentlemen:—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoofland's German Bitters. During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.

Truly your friend, THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

From John B. Withersham, Esq., firm of Withersham and Hutchinson, the celebrated manufacturers of Fancy Iron Works, 259 Canal street:

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz., that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhoea.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific, and, when I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.

Truly yours, JOHN B. WITHERSHAM.

New York, Feb. 2, 1864.

From Julius Lee, Esq., firm of Lee & Walker, the most extensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

February 8th, 1864.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when everything else had failed

Yours truly, JULIUS LEE.

From the Hon. Jacob Broom,

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7th, 1863.

Gentlemen:—In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters in my family, I have no hesitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure; for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it, I find it to be an unequalled tonic and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.

Truly yours, JACOB BROOM, 1707 Spruce.

From Rev. W. D. Seigfried, Pastor of the 12th Baptist Church:

PHILADELPHIA, December 26th, 1863.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters," whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action not only upon the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles.

Very respectfully yours, W. D. SEIGRIED, No. 254 Shackamaxon Street.

From the Rev. Thos. Winter, D. D., Pastor of Roxbury Baptist Church:

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters. I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been very materially benefitted. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.

Respectfully yours, E. WINTER, Roxbourough, Pa.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks county, Pa.

Dr. C. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's German Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.

Yours, with respect, J. S. HERMAN.

Letter From the Eighth Regiment.

HOLLY SPRINGS MISS., Aug. 27, 1864.

Editors Gazette.—The regiment is at present at Holly Springs; we arrived here yesterday, three days from Oxford, which place we entered on the 22d of the present month. A short time after capturing the place, some stragglers set fire to some unoccupied buildings in the business part of the town, and in a few hours the beautiful village of Oxford was in ruins. During the conflagration the soldiers took the liberty to plunder, and I must say it outdone all acts of the kind that I have witnessed since I have been in the army. It was the most wholesale plundering that any army ever participated in; the soldiers seemed determined to revenge the act of the rebel soldiery at Chambersburg. The scenes that were enacted in Oxford that day I hope I may never witness again. We remained in the town about six hours and returned to Hurricane Creek and encamped for the night. On the 23d we marched to Abbeyville, where we arrived about noon and went into camp at 1, p. m. We were attacked by the enemy in our camp. The Rebs. were handsomely repulsed by the 2d Brigade of Mower's Division, the 8th taking an active part in the affair. The Brigade met the assault gallantly, driving the rebels for three miles in perfect route, capturing all their dead and wounded, and a "right smart" of prisoners. The regiment lost eleven men in the affair.

Forrest, I suppose, has gone to Memphis. We are on our way back, and received orders yesterday to proceed at once to Memphis and from there to Atlanta, Georgia. I suppose we will take boats to Cario, thence by rail to Louisville, Ky., via. Indianapolis, Ind., from Louisville to Chattanooga by rail and I suppose from there to Atlanta on foot. We have a long journey before us. What the object of the present expedition is, I cannot tell but it looks as if we had not accomplished much. To be sure, we have destroyed the Mississippi Central R. R. to some extent, have had two engagements with the enemy and defeated him in both, but have not crippled him to any great extent. Forrest is making a raid in our rear, but what success he will have is not known here, though I think the troops that were left in Memphis properly handled, will defeat any plans of his, as far as the capturing and holding Memphis any length of time, is concerned. It would not be a very smart trick for any General to do, to pass our flanks to the rear and dash by the pickets and enter Memphis, but it will take a pretty smart man to stop in town long. Still he might enter Memphis with a regiment of cavalry and do the Government a great amount of damage, but we are not much afraid of Mr. Forrest. A large forage train is starting from here now and somebody's plantation will suffer this afternoon. The women down here say the only hope the Confederacy has now, is in the election of a Peace President this fall, and they think if McClellan was elected they would succeed. If that is their hope, let's have old Abe for another four years, as it is best to give them a double dose and cure them forever. It is costly medicine but it is the cheapest in the end.

A lady in Oxford told me she thought there was not a man in the Confederacy but what was employed by the Government in some capacity; all between 16 and 60 that could be found. We find nothing but little boys and men of old age. We captured men in the fight at Abbeyville that were certainly 60 years of age. The same lady told me that it was her belief if Lincoln was elected this fall that all hopes of the Confederacy being established would be at an end. I think she was as bitter a rebel as I ever talked with. She said the people had been gulled to their hearts content. A few days before we entered Oxford, Forrest told the citizens that Dick Taylor's Infantry had crossed the Mississippi River, and would be there shortly. The next day he dismounted all his cavalry, and led the horses around the town, and marched the men through the streets, and told the women and children, (no men at home,) that it was Taylor's Infantry, and he would now rid the State of all the Yanks. She said that she knew it to be a lie, but still there were those yet that believed such stuff.

Davis Mills, Miss. Sunday, Aug. 28th.—We left Holly Springs this morning, and have marched 21 miles, and are encamped on Wolf River. The army is moving in three columns.

La Grange, Tenn. Aug. 29.—We marched this morning at 7 a. m. and arrived here at 11. We have orders to move to Memphis by rail immediately; we brought all our wounded through in ambulances; the rebel wounded we brought also. The weather is very warm and the army has been living on one cracker and a half a day, and no meat, since the 19th.

Memphis, Tenn. Aug. 30th.—The regiment arrived here last evening by rail from La Grange and we are in camp in the suburbs of the city. The men are healthy. The non veterans will leave in a few days for home. W. B. BRITTON.

THE CAPTURE OF FORT MORGAN.

Its Bombardment and Surrender.

[Correspondent of the N. Y. Herald.]

FORT MORGAN, Aug. 23.

At twelve minutes to 7 o'clock on Tuesday morning, August 23, 1864, Fort Morgan mounting sixty heavy guns and containing a garrison of six hundred men, surrendered unconditionally to the combined forces of the army and navy of the United States, after a bombardment of less than twenty four hour.

DETAILS OF THE SURRENDER.

On Sunday evening Gen. Granger notified Admiral Farragut that he would be ready to open the siege next morning at daylight. That night the Admiral with his fleet took position in line of battle, and Monday morning at 5 o'clock we opened upon Morgan with thirty guns of various calibre and sixteen 8 and 10 inch mortors, and in a short time three Monitors and several wooden vessels opened, the former with 11 and 15 inch shells, and the latter with rifled 32-pounders. The firing continued with great vigor and extraordinary accuracy until dark, when the fleet withdrew, and the firing was continued only at intervals by the shore batteries.

FIRE IN THE FORT.

During the afternoon smoke was noticed ascending in a steady volume from a particular point inside the fort, and it was surmised by many that some part of the work was on fire, although very little was said or thought about it so great was the interest manifested in the accuracy of the artillery practice; but about nine o'clock at night a broad sheet of flame burst forth, which shone brightly all night and seemed to spread to the right, as if defying all exertions to extinguish it. It was thought by some officers that the enemy had piled together some boards and fired it in order that, by its light, a night assault might be guarded against.

THE CITADEL ON FIRE.

By others it was believed, and this belief was found to be correct, that the citadel was on fire, and that an explosion of the magazines might be expected at any moment. We were informed next morning by the rebels that after vain efforts to extinguish the fire they became greatly alarmed lest they should all be blown up, and flooded the magazine with water and threw a large quantity of powder into the wells. No sooner was this light discovered than Gen. Baily ordered all our batteries to commence firing, in order to prevent the rebels from extinguishing the flames, which they did with great vigor, and shells from 9 inch Dahlgren and 8 and 10-inch mortors fell amid the flames with fearful rapidity, driving the rebels to their ensements, and producing a scene of grandeur rarely witnessed. For fully an hour this awful scene continued with fiend-like fury, when the firing ceased suddenly, to the astonishment of those who witnessed the affair from the shipping in the bay.

THE FORT WAVES A SIGNAL LANTERN TO THE FLEET.

It was explained next morning by Gen. Bailey that he saw some of the garrison go down to the beach and wave a lantern to the fleet, evidently a signal to surrender. The General watched this movement steadily from a position he had cautiously obtained very close up to the glacier of the fort. After watching half an hour, the rebels finding the fleet made no answer to their signal, probably because it was not seen, or, if seen, not understood, withdrew to the fort without attempting to signal the army. Had they done so they might have been spared a very uncomfortable night, and we would have saved a large quantity of powder, shot and shell, for Gen. Baily immediately ordered his batteries to reopen, and the garrison of Fort Morgan slept to or were kept wide awake by the music of his guns.

A PROPOSAL TO SURRENDER.

At twenty minutes to seven o'clock on Tuesday morning a rebel officer, Captain Taylor, bearing a white flag, and accompanied by about forty men, carrying a small sail-boat, marched out at the main sallyport, facing Fort Gaines, with the intention of pushing off to the flagship, three or four miles distant, with a note from Gen. Page, proposing to surrender the fort, and asking what terms would be granted; but here again they were thwarted by the ubiquitous Bailey. They were determined to ignore the army entirely; they would not treat with it; they would not surrender to it if they could have had their own way, probably because Gen. Page, who was long an officer of the navy, has still a lingering affection for the old Union Jack. Gen. Bailey informed the flag of truce officer that the army and navy were one; that they represented one government; that his artillery commanded Fort Morgan and his battery every foot of Mobile Point outside the fort, and that he could not and would not permit a rebel boat's crew to push off from shore under any pretense whatever.

ARRIVAL OF GEN. GRANGER.

About this time Gen. Granger arrived at the wharf in front of Fort Morgan, and the note of Gen. Page was handed to him. Gen. Granger replied that he would communicate the contents of the note to the Admiral, and when his answer was received the terms of surrender would be dictated. In a short time thereafter Gen. Granger sent Gen. Arnold, chief of artillery; Capt. Drayton, of the Hartford, and another officer, with a demand for the immediate and unconditional surrender of Fort Morgan, with its garrison and all public property, to the army and navy of the United States, guaranteeing the treatment of an enlightened nation to prisoners of war. Gen. Page wished to stipulate for the removal of his sick and wounded to Mobile, but this was flatly refused, and he then sent a note to Gen. Granger, stating that he accepted his terms, but requesting that the formality of surrender might be deferred until two o'clock in the afternoon, that he might have time to pack up his baggage and get his men in order to march out. This request was acceded to.

THE REBELS MARCH OUT.

Accordingly, at precisely 2 o'clock, the rebel army, numbering probably a little over six hundred, marched out at the main sallyport without music and without banners, and were drawn up in line at the glacier fronting towards the bay. Two regiments of Union infantry—the 34th Iowa and 20th Wisconsin—preceded by the brass band playing "Hail Columbia," and with the stars and stripes and the colors of their respective States floating proudly above them, marched by and halted about five paces in front of the rebel line. The rebels then stacked their arms. After which the bands struck up the "Star Spangled Banner." The rebel rag was torn down and the old flag of our Union was once more flung to the breezes which are wafted over the ramparts of Fort Morgan.

A UNION SALUTE.

Then a national salute was thundered from the guns of the men of war in the bay, and in the Gulf from Fort Gaines, and from some of our batteries on the peninsula. When the enthusiasm had somewhat subsided the rolls of the rebel companies were called and verified, the officers and soldiers placed on board transports, the formal surrender of Fort Morgan completed, and the command of the entrance to Mobile Bay passed forever from the rebel States.

THE SPECTATORS.

While the salute was fired hundreds of officers of the army and navy in brilliant uniforms, and hundreds of soldiers and sailors, who seemed well pleased with the work they had done, crowded the ramparts of the fort to witness the imposing scenes.

PRESENT CONDITION OF THE FORT.

Over one thousand shells were exploded in the fort. The brick walls inside and out were fearfully battered, and the citadel a mass of ruins. I was informed by Capt. Palfrey that it will require from one hundred and fifty to two hundred thousand dollars to repair the damage done by one day's bombardment.

The light house is pierced and scaled in a dozen places, and is ready to tottle and fall before the lightest breeze. The rebels kept a look-out in the top until our sharpshooters made it too hot for him. Our boys put musket balls through every pane of glass. We had a line of eighty pounder Parrotts and four inch Dahlgrens, the latter under command of Capt. Tyson, of the Hartford, within fifteen hundred yards of the fort. From three to five hundred yards in front of these we had an irregular line of mortars, eight and ten inch calibre, under command of Maj. Roy, of the 1st Indiana Artillery.

McClellan's Friends.

The rioters who held our city in siege during three days of July, 1863—who burned the Colored Orphan Asylum, turning two or three hundred helpless and inoffensive children into the street—who, in gangs of one to three hundred, hunted simple negro boys and women through the streets, maiming, robbing and killing so many as they could of them—are all hot for McClellan. They paused in their devilish work, and went around to his house to cheer for him. That portion of the gang who mobbed, sacked and set on fire the Tribune office, were constantly shouting for McClellan. Their ringleader, while among his confidential cronies he proclaimed himself for Jeff. Davis, and boasted that we should soon see Gen. Lee marching up Broadway at the head of a triumphant, invincible army of Confederates, yet in public cheered and exhorted others to cheer for McClellan. "$500 reward to whoever will show us a Black Republican," was chalked on the opposite fence almost simultaneously with the burning out of the young orphans. All who participated in those cowardly, ruffianly, murderous riots, are now shouting themselves hoarse over the nomination of McClellan.

There are in this city thousands of Southern refugees as well as citizens of long standing who do not affect to disguise their intense and unqualified sympathy with the Slaveholders' Rebellion. Many of them affect to regard the triumph of the Republicans as the real revolt, and esteem the Southern resistance thereto legitimate and proper. One of the Roman Catholic journals, for example, habitually speaks of the President of the United States as "Old Abe," while it carefully styles the chief of the Rebels "President Davis." Every one who thus regards the Government and the Rebellion through inverted glasses is a zealous supporter of McClellan. For instance: the name of Henry Grinnell has repeatedly appeared in the Richmond journals as that of thorough sympathizer with "the South" in her struggle against "Abolition despotism." Mr. Grinnell's name naturally appears on the list of Vice-Presidents of the McClellan Ratification Meeting. Mr. Richard Lathers wrote a letter, late in 1860, intimating that he was ready to fight for his native South Carolina whenever she should call him to the field. Mr. Lathers has since had Gen. McClellan as a guest at his country residence, and his name also appears on the list of Vice-Presidents of the McClellan Ratifying Meeting in the Park.

Missouri is to-day a Radical Emancipation State; yet her vote is likely to be lost because of the wrongs perpetrated on her loyal people under the Schofield rule, which have driven thousands of her best voters into the support of Gen. Fremont. Unless that feud can be virtually closed, we are likely to lose the State; but by what vote? By the votes of tens of thousands who have personally served in the Rebel armies—who fought with Sterling Price when Gen. Lyon was killed at Wilson's Creek—who helped besiege and capture Col. Mulligan at Lexington—who were chased almost out of Missouri by Fremont—who were defeated by Curtis in the three days' fight at Pea Ridge—and who, skulking back to their old homes along the Missouri, have been "bushwhacking" and operating as guerillas—that is, robbers, ravishers and murderers—ever since. One of these villains, who used to lie in wait by the side of a road along which furloughed Union soldiers traveled northward from our armies in Arkansas, boasted that he had killed thirty of them, man by man, without risking his own life. The votes of these, cast in solid phalanx, elected the "conservative" Judges last Fall; the votes of these, if it is carried at all, are now to carry the State for McClellan.

Unionists of every State! we cannot afford to let the country fall into the hands of these miscreants! Let us do all that men can do to defeat them!—New York Tribune.

CATARRH, THROAT DISEASES!

Early Stages of Consumption!

LIVER COMPLAINTS,

Diseases of Women!

And all other Complaints that Lead to Consumption,

Are treated by DR. HALE, at the Wisconsin Throat & Lung Institute,

Myers' Block, Janesville,

by a new method, and with remedies that are eminently successful in the above class of chronic diseases.

The thinking and unbiased portion of the community will appreciate the great advantage of a permanent and reliable Institute for the cure of chronic diseases that usually baffle the skill of the general practitioner.

Catarrh, that great promoting cause of Consumption in the Northwest, always gives way upon application of the new remedies. Dr. Hale has never encountered a case of this disease he could not cure. The present season is very favorable for applying proper remedies; delays are dangerous. Your case may be cured this month, not next, to-day, not to-morrow.

All who are suffering from any of the diseases Dr. Hale makes a speciality in treating, should at least call and investigate the new system for themselves. No person of good sense and sound judgment will, without full and careful investigation, denounce as "humbug" that which claims to possess merit.

Dr. Hale takes pleasure in referring to the following, responsible parties, citizens of Janesville, who can speak knowingly as to the efficacy of Dr. Hale's treatment, not to mention hundreds of others in the Northwest that have been cured:

M. Schuyler, proprietor of the Schuyler House; Dewitt Davis, N. G. Ruliston, D. R. Stout, F. J. Tupper Ellis Doty, Job printer, J. D. Baynor, W. H. Mann, E. R. Beckley, N. Rowe, John Kerr, J. F. Drake, Wm. Hyzer, Mrs. W. W. Wheeler, Mrs. C. J. Cheney, Miss Belle Shattuck, Miss N. Wiley.

The list could be extended to an indefinite length, but the above will suffice.

This work is the result of Mr. Bradbury's collecting and composing for several years, and is everywhere being received with the greatest favor by the most experienced singers and musicians. NOW READY—PRICE 75 Cents.

Peoples' Edition of Parton's

Gen. Butler in New Orleans.

One Volume, Octavo, Paper, Price 75c.

With the view of meeting the extensive popular demand for this remarkable book, this edition has been prepared. The page and type are similar to those of Harper's Magazine. Some of the less important documents are omitted, and in some instances the account has been condensed, yet never so as to interfere with the interest or completeness of the story.

Unquestionably this book stands pre-eminent in interest among all yet occasioned by the rebellion. Its subject and author combine to render it fascinating. Fifteen editions have been called for as fast as they could be printed. It has been most warmly commended by the loyal press of the country, and scarcely less so by a portion at least of the English press, by whom it is acknowledged to be a complete vindication of Gen. Butler from the malicious charges which envy and hatred have brought against him.

It contains an anecdotal sketch of Gen. Butler's brilliant and remarkable career at the bar of Massachusetts; a history of the secret movements in the Charleston Convention; conversations between Gen. Butler and the leading secessionists at Washington in December, 1860; Buchanan's plans of the traitors; Gen. Butler invited to join them; his advice to Buchanan; his efforts in preparing Massachusetts for war; the celebrated march, via Annapolis, to Washington; collision with Gen. Scott; his course at Fortress Monroe; the history of the contrabands; his advice to the Administration how to take Richmond; the truth about the battle of Great Bethel; the Hatteras Expedition; the secret history of the New Orleans Expedition; the adventures of the General in getting to Ship Island; a full account of the capture of New Orleans; the landing of the troops in the city; a complete narrative of succeeding events, with a large number of highly interesting narratives and anecdotes never before published; the recall of Gen. Butler, and the explanation given of it by the Government; his present opinions upon the great issues before us.

Edition in large type, crown, 8vo., cloth, 662 pages, price $2.50. Peoples' Edition, 8vo., paper, 75 cents. German Edition $1. Sent by mail on receipt of price.

Letter From the Eighth Regiment.

HOLLY SPRINGS MISS., Aug. 27, 1864.

Editors Gazette.—The regiment is at present at Holly Springs; we arrived here yesterday, three days from Oxford, which place we entered on the 22d of the present month. A short time after capturing the place, some stragglers set fire to some unoccupied buildings in the business part of the town, and in a few hours the beautiful village of Oxford was in ruins. During the conflagration the soldiers took the liberty to plunder, and I must say it outdone all acts of the kind that I have witnessed since I have been in the army. It was the most wholesale plundering that any army ever participated in; the soldiers seemed, determined to revenge the act of the rebel soldiery at Chambersburg. The scenes that were enacted in Oxford that day I hope I may never witness again. We remained in the town about six hours and returned to Hurricane Creek and encamped for the night. On the 23d we marched to Abbeyville, where we arrived about noon and went into camp at I, p. m. We were attacked by the enemy in our camp. The Rebs. were handsomely repulsed by the 2d Brigade of Mower's Division, the 8th taking an active part in the affair. The Brigade met the assault gallantly, driving the rebels for three miles in perfect route, capturing all their dead and wounded. and a "right smart" of prisoners. The regiment lost eleven men in the affair.

Forrest, I suppose, has gone to Memphis. We are on our way back, and received orders yesterday to proceed at once to Memphis and from there to Atlanta, Georgia. I suppose we will take boats to Cario, thence by rail to Louisville, Ky., via. Indianapolis, Ind., from Louisville to Chattanooga by rail and I suppose from there to Atlanta on foot. We have a long journey before us. What the object of the present expedition is, I cannot tell but it looks as if we had not accomplished much. To be sure, we have destroyed the Mississippi Central R. R. to some extent, have had two engagements with the enemy and defeated him in both, but have not crippled him to any great extent. Forrest is making a raid in our rear, but what success he will have is not known here, though I think the troops that were left in Memphis properly handled, will defeat any plans of his, as far as the capturing and holding Memphis any length of time, is concerned. It would not be a very smart trick for any General to do, to pass our flanks to the rear and dash by the pickets and enter Memphis, but it will take a pretty smart man to stop in town long. Still he might enter Memphis with a regiment of cavalry and do the Government a great amount of damage, but we are not much afraid of Mr. Forrest. A large forage train is starting from here now and somebody's plantation will suffer this afternoon. The women down here say the only hope the Confederacy has now, is in the election of a Peace President this fall, and they think if McClellan was elected they would succeed. If that is their hope, let's have old Abe for another four years, as it is best to give them a double dose and cure them forever. It is costly medicine but it is the cheapest in the end.

A lady in Oxford told me she thought there was not a man in the Confederacy but what was employed by the Government in some capacity; all between 16 and 60 that could be found. We find nothing but little boys and men of old age. We captured men in the fight at Abbeyville that were certainly 60 years of age. The same lady told me that it was her belief if Lincoln was elected this fall that all hopes of the Confederacy being established would be at an end. I think she was as bitter a rebel as I ever talked with. She said the people had been gulled to their hearts content. A few days before we entered Oxford, Forrest told the citizens that Dick Taylor's Infantry had crossed the Mississippi River, and would be there shortly. The next day he dismounted all his cavalry, and led the horses around the town, and marched the men through the streets, and told the women and children, (no men at home,) that it was Taylor's Infantry, and he would now rid the State of all the Yanks. She said that she knew it to be a lie, but still there were those yet that believed such stuff.

— Davis Mills, Miss. Sunday, Aug. 28th.—We left Holly Springs this morning, and have marched 21 miles, and are encamped on Wolf River. The army is moving in three columns.

La Grange, Tenn. Aug. 29.—We marched this morning at 7 a. m. and arrived here at 11. We have orders to move to Memphis by rail immediately; we brought all our wounded through in ambulances; the rebel wounded we brought also. The weather is very warm and the army has been living on one cracker and a half a day, and no meat, since the 19th.

Memphis, Tenn. Aug. 30th.—The regiment arrived here last evening by rail from La Grange and we are in camp in the suburbs of the city. The men are healthy. The non veterans will leave in a few days for home. W. B. BRITTON.

THE CAPTURE OF FORT MORGAN.

Its Bombardment and Surrender.

[Correspondent of the N. Y. Herald.]

FORT MORGAN, Aug. 23.

At twelve minutes to 7 o'clock on Tuesday morning, August 23, 1864, Fort Morgan mounting sixty heavy guns and containing a garrison of six hundred men, surrendered unconditionally to the combined forces of the army and navy of the United States, after a bombardment of less than twenty four hour.

DETAILS OF THE SURRENDER.

On Sunday evening Gen. Granger notified Admiral Farragut that he would be ready to open the siege next morning at daylight. That night the Admiral with his fleet took position in line of battle, and Monday morning at 5 o'clock we opened upon Morgan with thirty guns of various calibre and sixteen 8 and 10 inch mortors, and in a short time three Monitors and several wooden vessels opened, the former with 11 and 15 inch shells, and the latter with rifled 32-pounders. The firing continued with great vigor and extraordinary accuracy until dark, when the fleet withdrew, and the firing was continued only at intervals by the shore batteries.

FIRE IN THE FORT.

During the afternoon smoke was noticed ascending in a steady volume from a particular point inside the fort, and it was surmised by many that some part of the work was on fire, although very little was said or thought about it so great was the interest manifested in the accuracy of the artillery practice; but about nine o'clock at night a broad sheet of flame burst forth, which shone brightly all night and seemed to spread to the right, as if defying all exertions to extinguish it. It was thought by some officers that the enemy had piled together some boards and fired it in order that, by its light, a night assault might be guarded against.

THE CITADEL ON FIRE.

By others it was believed, and this belief was found to be correct, that the citadel was on fire, and that an explosion of the magazines might be expected at any moment. We were informed next morning by the rebels that after vain efforts to extinguish the fire they became greatly alarmed lest they should all be blown up, and flooded the magazine with water and threw a large quantity of powder into the wells. No sooner was this light discovered than Gen. Baily ordered all our batteries to commence firing, in order to prevent the rebels from extinguishing the flames, which they did with great vigor, and shells from 9 inch Dahlgren and 8 and 10-inch mortors fell amid the flames with fearful rapidity, driving the rebels to their casements, and producing a scene of grandeur rarely witnessed. For fully an hour this awful scene continued with fiend-like fury, when the firing ceased suddenly, to the astonishment of those who witnessed the affair from the shipping in the bay.

THE FORT WAVES A SIGNAL LANTERN TO THE FLEET.

It was explained next morning by Gen. Bailey that he saw some of the garrison go down to the beach and wave a lantern to the fleet, evidently a signal to surrender. The General watched this movement steadily from a position he had cautiously obtained very close up to the glacier of the fort. After watching half an hour, the rebels finding the fleet made no answer to their signal, probably because it was not seen, or, if seen, not understood, withdrew to the fort without attempting to signal the army. Had they done so they might have been spared a very uncomfortable night, and we would have saved a large quantity of powder, shot and shell, for Gen. Baily immediately ordered his batteries to reopen, and the garrison of Fort Morgan slept to or were kept wide awake by the music of his guns.

A PROPOSAL TO SURRENDER.

At twenty minutes to seven o'clock on Tuesday morning a rebel officer, Captain Taylor, bearing a white flag, and accompanied by about forty men, carrying a small sail-boat, marched out at the main sallyport, facing Fort Gaines, with the intention of pushing off to the flagship, three or four miles distant, with a note from Gen. Page, proposing to surrender the fort, and asking what terms would be granted; but here again they were thwarted by the ubiquitous Bailey. They were determined to ignore the army entirely; they would not treat with it; they would not surrender to it if they could have had their own way, probably because Gen. Page, who was long an officer of the navy, has still a lingering affection for the old Union Jack. Gen. Bailey informed the flag of truce officer that the army and navy were one; that they represented one government; that his artillery commanded Fort Morgan and his battery every foot of Mobile Point outside the fort, and that he could not and would not permit a rebel boat's crew to push off from shore under any pretense whatever.

ARRIVAL OF GEN. GRANGER.

About this time Gen. Granger arrived at the wharf in front of Fort Morgan, and the note of Gen. Page was handed to him. Gen. Granger replied that he would communicate the contents of the note to the Admiral, and when his answer was received the terms of surrender would be dictated. In a short time thereafter Gen. Granger sent Gen. Arnold, chief of artillery; Capt. Drayton, of the Hartford, and another officer, with a demand for the immediate and unconditional surrender of Fort Morgan, with its garrison and all public property, to the army and navy of the United States, guaranteeing the treatment of an enlightened nation to prisoners of war. Gen. Page wished to stipulate for the removal of his sick and wounded to Mobile, but this was flatly refused, and he then sent a note to Gen. Granger, stating that he accepted his terms, but requesting that the formality of surrender might be deferred until two o'clock in the afternoon, that he might have time to pack up his baggage and get his men in order to march out. This request was acceded to.

THE REBELS MARCH OUT.

Accordingly, at precisely 2 o'clock, the rebel army, numbering probably a little over six hundred, marched out at the main sallyport without music and without banners, and were drawn up in line at the glacier fronting towards the bay. Two regiments of Union infantry—the 34th Iowa and 20th Wisconsin—preceded by the brass band playing "Hail Columbia," and with the stars and stripes and the colors of their respective States floating proudly above them, marched by and halted about five paces in front of the rebel line. The rebels then stacked their arms. After which the bands struck up the "Star Spangled Banner." The rebel rag was torn down and the old flag of our Union was once more flung to the breezes which are wafted over the ramparts of Fort Morgan.

A UNION SALUTE.

Then a national salute was thundered from the guns of the men of war in the bay, and in the Gulf from Fort Gaines, and from some of our batteries on the peninsula. When the enthusiasm had somewhat subsided the rolls of the rebel companies were called and verified, the officers and soldiers placed on board transports, the formal surrender of Fort Morgan completed, and the command of the entrance to Mobile Bay passed forever from the rebel States.

THE SPECTATORS.

While the salute was fired hundreds of officers of the army and navy in brilliant uniforms, and hundreds of soldiers and sailors, who seemed well pleased with the work they had done, crowded the ramparts of the fort to witness the imposing scenes.

PRESENT CONDITION OF THE FORT.

Over one thousand shells were exploded in the fort. The brick walls inside and out were fearfully battered, and the citadel a mass of ruins. I was informed by Capt. Palfrey that it will require from one hundred and fifty to two hundred thousand dollars to repair the damage done by one day's bombardment.

The light house is pierced and scaled in a dozen places, and is ready to tottle and fall before the lightest breeze. The rebels kept a look-out in the top until our sharpshooters made it too hot for him. Our boys put musket balls through every pane of glass. We had a line of eighty pounder Parrotts and four inch Dahlgrens, the latter under command of Capt. Tyson, of the Hartford, within fifteen hundred yards of the fort. From three to five hundred yards in front of these we had an irregular line of mortars, eight and ten inch calibre, under command of Maj. Roy, of the 1st Indiana Artillery.

McClellan's Friends.

The rioters who held our city in siege during three days of July, 1863—who burned the Colored Orphan Asylum, turning two or three hundred helpless and inoffensive children into the street—who, in gangs of one to three hundred, hunted simple negro boys and women through the streets, maiming, robbing and killing so many as they could of them—are all hot for McClellan. They paused in their devilish work, and went around to his house to cheer for him. That portion of the gang who mobbed, sacked and set on fire the Tribune office, were constantly shouting for McClellan. Their ringleader, while among his confidential cronies he proclaimed himself for Jeff. Davis, and boasted that we should soon see Gen. Lee marching up Broadway at the head of a triumphant, invincible army of Confederates, yet in public cheered and exhorted others to cheer for McClellan. "$500 reward to whoever will show us a Black Republican," was chalked on the opposite fence almost simultaneously with the burning out of the young orphans. All who participated in those cowardly, ruffianly, murderous riots, are now shouting themselves hoarse over the nomination of McClellan.

There are in this city thousands of Southern refugees as well as citizens of long standing who do not affect to disguise their intense and unqualified sympathy with the Slaveholders' Rebellion. Many of them affect to regard the triumph of the Republicans as the real revolt, and esteem the Southern resistance thereto legitimate and proper. One of the Roman Catholic journals, for example, habitually speaks of the President of the United States as "Old Abe," while it carefully styles the chief of the Rebels "President Davis." Every one who thus regards the Government and the Rebellion through inverted glasses is a zealous supporter of McClellan. For instance: the name of Henry Grinnell has repeatedly appeared in the Richmond journals as that of thorough sympathizer with "the South" in her struggle against "Abolition despotism." Mr. Grinnell's name naturally appears on the list of Vice-Presidents of the McClellan Ratification Meeting. Mr. Richard Lathers wrote a letter, late in 1860, intimating that he was ready to fight for his native South Carolina whenever she should call him to the field. Mr. Lathers has since had Gen. McClellan as a guest at his country residence, and his name also appears on the list of Vice-Presidents of the McClellan Ratifying Meeting in the Park.

Missouri is to-day a Radical Emancipation State; yet her vote is likely to be lost because of the wrongs perpetrated on her loyal people under the Schofield rule, which have driven thousands of her best voters into the support of Gen. Fremont. Unless that feud can be virtually closed, we are likely to lose the State: but by what vote? By the votes of tens of thousands who have personally served in the Rebel armies—who fought with Sterling Price when Gen. Lyon was killed at Wilson's Creek—who helped besiege and capture Col. Mulligan at Lexington—who were chased almost out of Missouri by Fremont—who were defeated by Curtis in the three days' fight at Pea Ridge—and who, skulking back to their old homes along the Missouri, have been "bushwhacking" and operating as guerillas—that is, robbers, ravishers and murderers—ever since. One of these villains, who used to lie in wait by the side of a road along which furloughed Union soldiers traveled northward from our armies in Arkansas, boasted that he had killed thirty of them, man by man, without riksing his own life. The votes of these, cast in solid phalanx, elected the "conservative" Judges last Fall; the votes of these, if it is carried at all, are now to carry the State for McClellan.

Unionists of every State! we cannot afford to let the country fall into the hands of these miscreants! Let us do all that men can do to defeat them!—New York Tribune.

The thinking and unbiased portion of the community will appreciate the great advantage of a permanent and reliable Institute for the cure of chronic diseases that usually baffle the skill of the general practitioner.

Catarrh, that great promoting cause of Consumption in the Northwest, always gives way upon application of the new remedies. Dr. Hale has never encountered a case of this disease he could not cure. The present season is very favorable for applying proper remedies; delays are dangerous. Your case may be cured this month, not next, to-day, not to-morrow.

All who are suffering from any of the diseases Dr. Hale makes a speciality in treating, should at least call and investigate the new system for themselves. No person of good sense and sound judgment will, without full and careful investigation, denounce as "humbug" that which claims to possess merit.

Dr. Hale takes pleasure in referring to the following responsible parties, citizens of Janesville, who can speak knowingly as to the officacy of Dr. Hale's treatment, not to mention hundreds of others in the Northwest that have been cured:

M. Schuyler, proprietor of the Schuyler House; Dewitt Davis, N. G. Keniston, D. R. Stont, F. J. Tupper Ellis Doty, job printer, J. D. Haynor, W. H. Mann, E. R. Beckley, N. Rowe, John Kerr, J. F. Drake, Wm. Hyzer, Mrs. W. W. Wheeler, Mrs. C. J. Cheney, Miss Bells Shattuck, Miss N. Wiley.

NOW READY—PRICE 75 Cents.

Peoples' Edition of Parton's

Gen. Butler in New Orleans.

One Volume, Octavo, Paper, Price 75c.

With the view of meeting the extensive popular demand for this remarkable book, this edition has been prepared. The page and type are similar to those of Harper's Magazine. Some of the less important documents are omitted, and in some instances the account has been condensed, yet never so as to interfere with the interest or completeness of the story.

Unquestionably this book stands pre-eminent in interest among all yet occasioned by the rebellion. Its subject and author combine to render it fascinating. Fifteen editions have been called for as fast as they could be printed. It has been most warmly commended by the loyal press of the country, and scarcely less so by a portion at least of the English press, by whom it is acknowledged to be a complete vindication of Gen. Butler from the malicious charges which envy and hatred have brought against him.

It contains an anecdotal sketch of Gen. Butler's brilliant and remarkable career at the bar of Massachusetts; a history of the secret movements in the Charleston Convention; conversations between Gen. Butler and the leading secessionists at Washington in December, 1860; the real plans of the traitors; Gen. Butler invited to join them; his advice to Buchanan; his efforts in preparing Massachusetts for war; the celebrated march, via Annapolis, to Washington; collision with Gen. Scott; his course at Fortress Monroe; the history of the contrabands; his advise to the Administration how to take Richmond; the truth about the battle of Great Bethel; the Hatteras Expedition; the secret history of the New Orleans Expedition; the adventures of the General in getting to Ship Island; a full account of the capture of New Orleans; the landing of the troops in the city; a complete narrative of succeeding events, with a large number of highly interesting narratives and anecdotes never before published; the recall of Gen. Butler, and the explanation given of it by the Government; his present opinions upon the great issues before us.

Edition in large type, crown, 8vo., cloth, 602 pages, price $2.50. People's Edition, 8vo., paper, 75 cents. German Edition $1. Sent by mail on receipt of price.

R. J. ROBERTS'

Spring Steel Drill-Eyed

NEEDLES!!

TO THE LADIES.

We most respectfully solicit your kind attention for a moment to a matter which, though apparently trifling, is nevertheless of considerable importance to your convenience, patience and comfort. Every lady, no matter what her position in society, whether it be one of ease and affluence, or one of toil and poverty, has occasion almost daily to ply the busy needle; how and where to procure needles of perfect quality, is, therefore, a question of some interest to you all. The Needles known as "R. J. Roberts" are of this description. They are made of

Extra Refined Swedish Steel,

are tempered by a new and improved process; which render them uniform, smooth, bright, strong and pliable: their eyes are helixed and silver burnished: their points are hard, sharp and gently tapering. In addition to these advantages, they are put up in which renders them much more convenient. In nearly all the large cities of Europe and America their sale is extensive, and their reputation unequaled. They will not easily break nor bend; they will not chafe the thread; they will not turn up nor break off at the points. Each of them is warranted to sew a long while, easily and well.

PATENT WRAPPERS,

TRY THEM, LADIES,

N. SWACER,

Furniture and Cabinet Ware, will announce to the citizens of Janesville, Rock and adjoining counties, that he has on hand the largest and best selected stock of furniture that has ever been in Janesville, and notwithstanding the great rise in prices of labor, material, &c., he is not only able but determined to sell his immense stock of furniture for the next 60 days over the old prices, though furniture has everywhere else advanced at least from 25 to 75 cents over the old rates, and as it may be believed that he, too, asks more for furniture than he did before, he will disprove this to every one who will call and examine his stock, as he is sure to give entire satisfaction to the most fastidious, both in regard to price, quality and beauty of style, which can not be surpassed here or elsewhere.

Without any Advance in Price

Among my numerous articles I can only mention Sofas, Tete a-Tetes, Sofa, Mahogany, Flag, Cane and Wooden Seat Chairs, Lounges, Marble Top, Center, Card, Extension, Dining, Breakfast and Kitchen Tables, Mahogany, Cherry and Black Walnut Bureaus of all kinds, Bedsteads of every description, Coffins of all sizes and trimmed in every variety of style constantly on hand.

of all sizes. Remember the sign of the Coffin, first door west of the Big Mill. 813jy21dawtf

TO GAS CONSUMERS.—The Gas Company would respectfully notify their customers that in consequence of the heavy advance in the price of all their manufacturing material and labor over ordinary rates, they are compelled to make an advance in the price of Gas (from and after the first day of September next) of 50 cts. per 1,000 cubic feet, and the price at which Gas will be sold until further notice is $4.50 per 1,000 cubic feet. A REMEDY FOR THE PILES.

It is a blessing to the suffering to know that we have an effectual cure for this truly troublesome disease. Mr. J. P. Hazarde, of 101 Second street, Cincinnati, O., takes great pleasure in informing all who are suffering with piles that he used a small quantity of Dr. Strickland's Pile Remedy, and it effected a permanent cure. This seems to be the case with all who make use of this splendid preparation. It is manufactured at No 6 East Fourth street, Cincinnati, O., and sold by all Druggists.

DIARRHŒA AND DYSENTERY.

We have examined a great number of letters from some of the most prominent citizens of Cincinnati and Covington, etc., speaking in the highest terms of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture for the cure of diarrhœa and dysentery. The letters are too long to publish. Mr. Woods, of Covington, says he was pronounced incurable by the best doctors in Cincinnati, and one bottle of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture effected a permanent cure after suffering for months with the worst form of diarrhœa and dysentery.

Another says he was discharged from the United States service after suffering in the hospital for eight months as incurable, and as a last resource tried Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture. He got well directly and has now entered the army again in good health. One man writes he has cured seven or eight very bad cases of diarrhœa and dysentery in the barracks he was in with one bottle of this valuable medicine. In fact we could fill half our paper with similar items from these letters. Why does not our government secure this valuable preparation? Our army ought to be supplied with it. It is but a short time since one of our men lay in a very low condition at one of our Cincinnati Hospitals, his wife was sent for. The doctors considered his case an hopeless case. She, however, gave him Strickland's Anti Cholera Mixture, and in three weeks he was able to return home with his wife to New Richmond, O. All these cases right at home speak for themselves. We hope all the soldiers will put a bottle of it in their knapsacks. It may save them or some of their comrades. It is for sale by Druggists at 65 cents per bottle.

We have taken the agency of the above named Insurance Company for Rock county, and intend either personally or by substitutes to canvass the whole county soliciting business in its behalf. It is a stock company, and stands among the heaviest and most reliable institutions in New York. Dividing 75 per cent. of its net profits among its participating policy holders, makes it one of the most desirable companies in which to insure. Risks taken on merchandise, buildings, and all homestead property at the customary rates. J. S. CHAPIN.

MADISON MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

A Statement of the business of the Company for the six months ending June 30, 1864:

Premium notes thereon	88,781 17
Cash premiums thereon	60,150 20

Statement of the business of the Company for the corresponding term of the last four years:

	Policies issued.	Premium notes	Cash Premiums.
1860 to June 30	1,763	$30,558 13	$16,008 32
1861 to June 30	2,960	51,479 41	26,091 61

1864 to June 30	6,618	88,781 17	60,150 30

It is gratifying to the officers, as it must be pleasing to the members, to exhibit the foregoing evidence of the rapid increase of business and the present condition of the Company. The public faith, at first awakened by our able and untiring agents, and confirmed by the unswerving fidelity of the Company to its professions, has matured into a confidence which cannot be shaken by charlatan opponents or jealous rivals.

The citizens of this State have built up a home company which gives them ample protection, and precludes the necessity of sending their money abroad for a security which they give to one another. It needs no brazen trumpet to sound its praise, the hundreds to whom property and home have been restored by its beneficence, and its immense and rapidly increasing business, are at once evidence of its guardianship and popularity.

Its best eulogium is its large home endorsement, and where it is most known it is in vain for others to solicit the risks which come within its rules. Its present unimpaired capital is considerably over $500,000, consisting of premium notes and cash assets, and while it combines security and economy in a degree hardly paralleled, it is believed that no mutual fire insurance company in the United States presents as large a capital and a business as great.

GOTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.

Wholesale and Retail

The proprietors of this justly esteemed and well-known brand of Stomach Bitters, do not deem it necessary, in order to give their goods a fictitious, or even an enhanced value, to take a fling at all other Bitters, and proclaim in small capitals that they are worthless. Our Bitters do not need this, as we place them before the public on their merits, and invite your careful attention to the goods we allow our brand upon, knowing as we do so, that our reputation is at stake. The name, "Red Jacket," is taken from the original compound by the native child of the forrest, and with the addition of a few herbs by Dr. Chapin, made more agreeable to the taste, they have now a peculiarly healthy, soothing and recuperative influence, especially for the patient rising from the bed of sickness, loss of appetite, distress after eating, dizziness, and all diseases arising from Torpid Liver or Indigestion.

They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite.
They assist digestion.
They are the best stimulant in existence.
They are a sure preventive of Fever and Ague.
They relieve constipation.
They cure Nervous Headache.
They are perfectly pure and palatable.
They make the debilitated strong, and restore to strength the exhausted.

Aged persons and delicate females will find they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters.

A REMEDY FOR THE PILES.

It is a blessing to the suffering to know that we have an effectual cure for this truly troublesome disease. Mr. J. P. Hazarde, of 101 Second street, Cincinnati, O., takes great pleasure in informing all who are suffering with piles that he used a small quantity of Dr. Strickland's Pile Remedy, and it effected a permanent cure. This seems to be the case with all who make use of this splendid preparation. It is manufactured at No 8 East Fourth street, Cincinnati, O., and sold by all Druggists.

DIARRHŒA AND DYSENTERY.

We have examined a great number of letters from some of the most prominent citizens of Cincinnati and Covington, etc., speaking in the highest terms of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture for the cure of diarrhœa and dysentery. The letters are too long to publish. Mr. Woods, of Covington, says he was pronounced incurable by the best doctors in Cincinnati, and one bottle of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture effected a permanent cure after suffering for months with the worst form of diarrhœa and dysentery.

Another says he was discharged from the United States service after suffering in the hospital for eight months as incurable, and as a last resource tried Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture. He got well directly and has now entered the army again in good health. One man writes he has cured seven or eight very bad cases of diarrhœa and dysentery in the barracks he was in with one bottle of this valuable medicine. In fact we could fill half our paper with similar items from these letters. Why does not our government secure this valuable preparation? Our army ought to be supplied with it. It is but a short time since one of our men lay in a very low condition at one of our Cincinnati Hospitals, his wife was sent for. The doctors considered his case an hopeless case. She, however, gave him Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture, and in three weeks he was able to return home with his wife to New Richmond, O. All these cases right at home speak for themselves. We hope all the soldiers will put a bottle of it in their knapsacks. It may save them or some of their comrades. It is for sale by Druggists at 65 cents per bottle.

We have taken the agency of the above named Insurance Company for Rock county, and intend either personally or by substitutes to canvass the whole county soliciting business in its behalf. It is a stock company, and stands among the heaviest and most reliable institutions in New York. Dividing 75 per cent. of its net profits among its participating policy holders, makes it one of the most desirable companies in which to insure. Risks taken on merchandise, buildings, and all homestead property at the customary rates. J. S. CHAPIN.

MADISON MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

A Statement of the business of the Company for the six months ending June 30, 1864:

Number of policies issued	6,018
Amount of risks thereon	$6,468,128 33
Premium notes thereon	88,784 17
Cash premiums thereon	60,150 20
Losses adjusted and paid	13,179 13

Statement of the business of the Company for the corresponding term of the last four years:

	Policies issued.	Premium notes	Cash Premiums.
1860 to June 30	3,765	$20,558 45	$10,008 32
1861 to June 30	2,960	51,479 44	26,994 01

1864 to June 30	5,618	88,784 17	60,150 20

It is gratifying to the officers, as it must be pleasing to the members, to exhibit the foregoing evidences of the rapid increase of business and the present condition of the Company. The public faith, at first awakened by our able and untiring agents, and confirmed by the unswerving fidelity of the Company to its professions, has matured into a confidence which cannot be shaken by charlatan opponents or jealous rivals.

The citizens of this State have built up a home company which gives them ample protection, and precludes the necessity of sending their money abroad for a security which they give to one another. It needs no brazen trumpet to sound its praise, the hundreds to whom property and home have been restored by its beneficence, and its immense and rapidly increasing business, are at once evidence of its guardianship and popularity.

Its best eulogium is its large home endorsement, and where it is most known it is in vain for others to solicit the risks which come within its rules. Its present unimpaired capital is considerably over $500,000, consisting of premium notes and cash assets, and while it combines security and economy in a degree hardly paralleled, it is believed that no mutual fire insurance company in the United States presents as large a capital and a business as great.

COTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

Signed, L. M. GOTTSCHALK.

STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors of this justly esteemed and well-known brand of Stomach Bitters, do not deem it necessary, in order to give their goods a fictitious, or even an enhanced value, to take a fling at all other Bitters, and proclaim in small capitals that they are worthless. Our Bitters do not need this, as we place them before the public on their merits, and invite your careful attention to the goods we allow our brand upon, knowing as we do so, that our reputation is at stake. The name, "Red Jacket," is taken from the original compound by the native child of the forest, and with the addition of a few herbs by Dr. Chapin, made more agreeable to the taste, they have now a peculiarly healthy, soothing and recuperative influence, especially for the patient rising from the bed of sickness, loss of appetite, distress after eating, dizziness, and all diseases arising from Torpid Liver or Indigestion.

They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite.
They assist digestion.
They are the best stimulant in existence.
They are a sure preventive of Fever and Ague.
They relieve constipation.
They cure Nervous Headache.
They are perfectly pure and palatable.
They make the debilitated strong, and restore to strength the exhausted.

Aged persons and delicate females will find they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make;

FOUR DIFFERENT STITCHES, and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stepping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Patent Medicines.

Good News for the Unfortunate!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

Patent Medicines.

THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDIES, KNOWN AS

Helmbold's Genuine Preparation

"highly concentrated" compound

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

a positive and specific remedy for diseases of

The Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsical Swellings.

H

This medicine increases the power of digestion and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the water or calcerous dispositions, and all unnatural enlargements, are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation.

Take no Balsam, Mercury or unpleasant medicine for unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

cures such in all their stages, at little expense; little or no change of diet; no inconvenience, and no exposure.

It causes frequent desire and gives strength to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, and allaying inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases.

Thousands upon thousands who have been the

Victims of Quacks,

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form.

E

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu

for all affections and diseases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing. Diseases of these organs require the aid of a Diuretic. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is

The Great Diuretic,

Helmbold's highly concentrated compound

Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and removes all scaly eruptions of the skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its blood-purifying properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation or Sarsaparilla.

PLOWS! PLOWS! PLOWS!

THE CELEBRATED WROUGHT IRON

Skeleton Frame Plow,

Manufactured by

Wm. B. Young & Co., Chicago, Ill.

The new wrought iron skeleton frame of our plows lightens the plow some ten pounds, and is the most scientific arrangement of parts to give strength and lightness combined, ever yet invented. This new feature is attracting much attention.

The model of the plow is such that it will scour readily in any and all soils. Will run with very light draft, and ease to the plowman, covering all weeds, stubble and rubbish completely.

All our plows are constructed of the very best material that can be bought.

Each one is pointed with Cast Steel and hardened, and the workmanship of each part will be thoroughly done.

The finish and polish of every plow is not equalled by any other manufacturer.

We aim to supply the best plow in the market, the most durable, the best made, the best finished, and the best running plow.

Every plow we warrant fully to be perfect in construction, and to scour freely.

Farmers are requested to call and see the plow before purchasing elsewhere. H. T. SELBY, Agent.

Patent Medicines.

Good News for the Unfortunate!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in, all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

Patent Medicines.

THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDIES, KNOWN AS

Helmbold's Genuine Preparation

"highly concentrated" compound

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

a positive and specific remedy for diseases of

The Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsical Swellings.

H

This medicine increases the power of digestion and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the water or calcerous dispositions, and all unnatural enlargements, are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation.

Take no Balsam, Mercury or unpleasant medicin for unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

cures such in all their stages, at little expense; little or no change of diet: no inconvenience, and no exposure.

It causes frequent desire and gives strength to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, and allaying inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases.

Thousands upon thousands who have been the

Victims of Quacks,

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form.

E

Use Helmbold' Extract Buchu

for all affections and diseases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing. Diseases of these organs require the aid of a Diuretic. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is and it is certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

L

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!

Helmbold's highly concentrated compound

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla Syphilis

This is an affection of the blood, and attacks the sexual organs, linings of the nose, ears, throat, windpipe, and other mucous surfaces, making its appearance in the form of ulcers. Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and removes all scaly eruptions of the skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its blood-purifying properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation or Sarsaparilla.

M

Helmbold's Rose Wash,

an excellent lotion for diseases of a syphilitic nature, and as an injection in diseases of the urinary organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended.
